MODERATOR

Join us for a conversation addressing how Muslims are portrayed in contemporary plays and Hollywood films, the importance of stories about Muslims, and how portrayals affect the Muslim-American community's sense of self.

Sunday, February 12, 2017, 6:00-8:00pm

at the Muslim Education Center
8601 N. Menard Ave, Morton Grove

This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be provided.

Reservations are requested: MCCInterfaithTeam@gmail.com

This event is being held in association with Northlight Theatre's world premiere production of Faceless:

Eighteen-year-old Susie Glenn is on trial for conspiring to commit acts of terrorism, and recent Harvard Law grad and practicing Muslim, Claire Fathi, has been brought on to prosecute. Though pitted against one another in the courtroom, these two young women are fighting a similar battle to defend their morals, motives and religious freedoms in this riveting and timely new drama.

Playing JANUARY 26 - MARCH 4, 2017
